

JACOBS LEVY BALLROOM LOBBY

Naming Recognizes Leadership Benefactors

Pictured (l-r): Bruce Jacobs and Ken Levy with Park Avenue Foundation Board Member, Patty Sly and Park Avenue Foundation President, Andrew Boles

The Park Avenue Foundation is pleased to announce the naming of the Ballroom Lobby in recognition of a generous, leadership gift by Bruce I. Jacobs and Kenneth N. Levy. The Jacobs Levy Ballroom Lobby complements the Jacobs Levy Recognition Corridor-Main Lobby, which was named in recognition of their generous, philanthropic support during the most recent capital campaign.

Dr. Jacobs and Mr. Levy were drawn to the Club due to its philanthropic mission and convenience to their firm, Jacobs Levy Equity Management. They have enjoyed using the Club since 2001 for various business meetings and their annual staff holiday party, as well as family events. They are regular supporters of the annual gala and the employee appreciation fund.

“We are proud to support the Foundation’s mission and the important work of its member charitable organizations, and we look forward to continuing to enjoy the Club’s wonderful amenities,” said Dr. Jacobs.

The Foundation looks forward to honoring Dr. Jacobs and Mr. Levy at the September 27th Gala. Foundation president Andrew Boles remarked, “Bruce and Ken’s generosity significantly impacts the Foundation’s support of our community’s human service and cultural non-profits. We are most grateful.”

Dr. Jacobs and Mr. Levy co-founded Jacobs Levy Equity Management in 1986. They serve as co-chief investment officers and co-directors of research. Their firm, located just steps from the Club in Florham Park, specializes in equity investing based on over 35 years of groundbreaking, quantitative equity research. The firm has an extensive history of philanthropy.

“Bruce and Ken’s generosity significantly impacts the Foundation’s support of our community’s human service and cultural non-profits. We are most grateful.”

